

You're Invited to a Valentine Vigil
on Thursday, February 16th

Come rally for marriage at the Trenton Statehouse!

This Valentine's season, marriage is under attack. Please join us at the statehouse on Thursday, February 16, from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. to pray and rally for natural marriage in New Jersey. The Assembly is voting on this day, so this is the time to take off work for marriage (and plan a date with your spouse in the evening).

Event Details:

- Where: The Statehouse, 125 West State Street, Trenton. We will gather in the Annex courtyard.
- When: Prayer vigil begins at 11:30 a.m., rally from 12 noon to 2 p.m. We will conclude with a prayer walk around the capital building.
- Who: As many as you can bring with you

Other notes:

- Transportation: Buses are available for large groups. For more information contact Q Rim by email: grim@njfpc.org.
- Parking: We recommend that you arrive early and park at the Trenton Marriott (1 West Lafayette St.) or one of Trenton's numerous other garages. Two options are located at 110 N. Warren St. and 42 Chancery Ln.

- Senate vote: If you are unable to come down for the rally on Thursday, or if you are able to take more than one day off, we also need supporters to attend the Senate floor vote on Monday, February 13th, and show their support from the gallery. Please email Q Rim or Greg Quinlan if you would like to come down on Monday.
- RSVP: Please let us know you're coming by replying to advocacy@njfpc.org.
